PCS Developer

Description
PCS Software Developer

#1272

Duties and Responsibilities:

As a developer on our team, your responsibilities will include:

- Work closely with our developers, test engineers and our customers to create and implement superior software
- Drive the development of the features you own
- Bring fresh and creative ideas to enhance your own assignments as well as the overall products and services we provide
- Assist in design and architecture of the product, as it relates to your features
- Design, implementation, and unit test of features
- Provide scheduling and tracking of deliverables for the features that you deliver

Qualified Candidates Will Possess:

- Bachelor's degree in Computer Science or related field
- Two to four years of experience in software related field
- Windows Forms / WPF

- Experience with DevExpress UI components.
- C#
- Worked on interfacing with data acquisition devices like analog/digital inputs, digital signal processors.
- Should have background on various industrial protocols like CAN/LIN/ProfiNET
- Experience with NI hardware

Hiring organization
Talent Advantage Group

Employment Type
Full-time

Date posted
11/30/2020